Notice inviting expression of interest

Archaeological Survey of India desires to set up a personality museum in its centrally protected monument namely the ancestral house of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, the first President of India, located at Jiradei, district Siwan (Bihar). In accordance thereof, Expression of Interest is invited from suitable agencies which are willing to set up a museum at the said site with its own financial and technical resources under the overall supervision of Archaeological Survey of India.

The interested agencies should submit online the detailed concept plan along with proposed lay out and designs, the timeline of its completion which should be as short as possible and the quantity of fund to be invested by them along with an explicit statement of willingness to bear the entire cost of project implementation. While conceptualizing the project it should be kept in mind that no change/modification to the original structure is allowed. For the convenience of framing the project site plan of the monument is attached herewith. The bidders are advised to inspect and examine the venue and take all the information and conditions into account before submitting the proposal. For any information/clarification the bidders or their representative may contact The Superintending Archaeologist, Archaeological Survey of India, J.C. Road, Anta Ghat, Patna, Tel: 0612 2677623/ 2677188 email: circlepatna.asi@gov.in between 11.00 hrs to 17.00 hrs on any working day from 08.12.2018 to 17.12.2018. Archaeological Survey of India reserves the right of deciding appropriate terms & conditions in this context at any stage and approve or reject the proposal in total or in part only without assigning any reason for it.

All the documents should reach Office of the Superintending Archaeologist, Archaeological Survey of India, Patna Circle, Patna latest by 15.00 hrs on 18.12.2018.
